2013/7. Annual report of the Executive Director of UNICEF: progress and achievements against the medium-term strategic plan

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the annual report of the Executive Director of UNICEF: progress and achievements against the medium-term strategic plan (E/ICEF/2013/11);

2. Requests UNICEF to continue to improve its results reporting, including in the last annual report of the current medium-term strategic plan, as requested in decision 2012/7;

3. Welcomes the ongoing efforts to enhance results-based management, and in this regard underscores the importance of developing a robust and harmonized results framework for the next strategic plan, 2014-2017, that is clear and simple and demonstrates a complete result chain with expected results at each level;

4. Acknowledges the importance of reporting on gender equality results in all focus areas, and reiterates its request to comprehensively integrate these results into the annual report of the Executive Director.

2013/8. UNICEF strategic plan, 2014-2017: advancing the rights of every child, especially the most disadvantaged

The Executive Board

1. Welcomes the consultative and participatory process conducted by UNICEF in developing the draft strategic plan, 2014-2017;

2. Takes note with appreciation of the efforts by UNICEF to include the mandates of the quadrennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system in the next UNICEF strategic plan, 2014-2017, requests UNICEF to fully align the next strategic plan, 2014-2017, with these mandates, and further requests UNICEF to continue contributing to discussions with other funds and programmes towards developing a common approach to tracking the implementation of the quadrennial comprehensive policy review;

3. Welcomes the proposed structure and framework of the draft strategic plan, 2014-2017, including its proposed set of outcome areas and implementation strategies, as well as the plan's attention to humanitarian action and gender equality, with the expectation that humanitarian action and gender equality will be fully integrated in the strategic plan, recognizing that the exact formulation of the outcomes and implementation strategies is still evolving, and requests UNICEF to prepare a final version of the draft based, inter alia, on the comments and inputs received from Member States during the annual session 2013 of the Executive Board and during the ongoing process which will require further consultations, clarification and amendments, for finalization and approval at its second regular session 2013;

4. Requests UNICEF to provide more information, in time for the second regular session 2013, on how results will be achieved, inter alia, by clearly demonstrating how outputs are directly attributable to UNICEF, how outputs and outcomes are linked, and how risks are assessed and will be managed, as a means to achieve the results;

5. Welcomes the structure and approach of the integrated results and resources framework of the draft strategic plan, 2014-2017, while recognizing that the exact formulation of indicators, risks and assumptions in the annex to the draft strategic plan, 2014-2017, is still evolving, and requests UNICEF to prepare a final version of the draft and the annex in consultation with Member States for finalization and approval at the second regular session 2013 of the Executive Board;

6. Notes that the exact formulation of the results framework's baselines, milestones and targets in the annex is still evolving, and requests UNICEF to further develop them in consultation with Member States, with a view to their finalization by the annual session 2014 of the Executive Board;

7. Requests UNICEF to provide further information, in time for the second regular session 2013, on the way in which the organization will work together and divide labour within the United Nations system, including with other funds, programmes and specialized agencies of the United Nations development system, taking into account their respective mandates, in order to enhance coherence and avoid overlap and duplication, with the aim of improving results on the ground and delivery for programme countries;

8. Also requests UNICEF to fully take into account the views of the Member States in finalizing the strategic plan, 2014-2017, and the annex, as well as the integrated budget, 2014-2017, for adoption at the second regular session 2013.

2013/9. Report on the progress of gender equality work in UNICEF

The Executive Board

1. Welcomes the report on the progress of gender equality work in UNICEF (E/ICEF/2013/12), in line with the end-of-cycle review of the Strategic Priority Action Plan for Gender Equality, 2010-2013, including the presentation of progress, challenges and the way forward;

2. Takes note of the significant progress on leadership commitment and inter-agency partnerships, improved planning and reporting processes and greater ownership at the regional and country levels, and notes with concern the shortcomings in the achievement and monitoring of gender-sensitive results, the lack of human and financial resources and the lack of gender expertise;

3. Requests UNICEF to develop a new Gender Equality Action Plan for 2014-2017, aligned with the UNICEF strategic plan, 2014-2017, taking into account the findings, recommendations and lessons learned identified in the end-of-cycle review and the report itself;

4. Also requests UNICEF to develop strategies, as part of the new Gender Equality Action Plan, to address each of the challenges identified in the report, such as technical capacity, expertise and resource allocation for gender equality and empowerment of women at the corporate level and at the country level based on the United Nations Development Assistance Framework;

5. Further requests UNICEF to develop a performance management plan that includes a results framework and a plan for monitoring, evaluation and reporting, as part of the new Gender Equality Action Plan for 2014-2017, expanding on and in line with the gender-sensitive results and sex-disaggregated indicators that will be included in the UNICEF strategic plan, 2014-2017;

6. Requests UNICEF to cost and allocate adequate funds for the new Gender Equality Action Plan for 2014-2017 and to have this clearly described in the integrated budget;

7. Also requests UNICEF to report annually on progress on gender equality and the empowerment of women and on the implementation of the new Gender Equality Action Plan for 2014-2017, with the first report to be presented at the annual session of the Executive Board in 2014.

2013/10. Draft country programme document for Egypt

The Executive Board

1. Recalls its decision 2013/4 to review and approve, on an exceptional basis, the draft country programme document for Egypt at its annual session of 2013;

2. Approves the draft country programme document for Egypt (E/ICEF/2013/P/L.3), with the aggregate indicative budget of $12,879,000 from regular resources, subject to the availability of funds, and $32,000,000 in other resources, subject to the availability of specific-purpose contributions, for the period from July 2013 to December 2017.

Annual session
21 June 2013

2013/11. Draft common country programme document for Rwanda

The Executive Board

1. Recalls its decision 2012/10 to approve the draft common country programme document for Rwanda at its annual session of 2013;

2. Approves the draft common country programme document for Rwanda (DP/FPA/OPS-ICEF-WFP/DCCP/2013/RWA/1 and Add.3), with the aggregate indicative budget of $41,250,000 from regular resources, subject to the availability of funds, and $79,000,000 in other resources, subject to the availability of specific-purpose contributions, for the period 2013-2018.

2013/13. Evaluation

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the annual report on the evaluation function and major evaluations in UNICEF (E/ICEF/2013/13);

2. Recalls that the mandate of the evaluation function is to evaluate the relevance, effectiveness, efficiency and impact of UNICEF programmes and interventions as well as the sustainability of results;

3. Welcomes the evidence presented in the report of continued strengthening of the evaluation function at the decentralized level, and encourages UNICEF to take further steps to address shortcomings related to evaluation coverage and to the quality of decentralized evaluations;

4. Takes note of the key performance indicators tracking the effectiveness of the evaluation system and the administrative data on human and financial resources;

5. Notes the positive work to strengthen the skills, capacities and systems of national partners and to strengthen South-South learning;

6. Welcomes the preparation of the revised Evaluation Policy of UNICEF, consistent with norms and standards developed by the United Nations Evaluation

Group as a professional network of units responsible for evaluation in the United Nations system;

7. Endorses the revised Evaluation Policy of UNICEF (E/ICEF/2013/14);

8. Reaffirms the central role played by the evaluation function in UNICEF;

9. Emphasizes that the Evaluation Office will continue to report directly to the Executive Board through its annual report on the evaluation function and that the Director of the Evaluation Office will continue to report administratively to the Executive Director;

10. Requests UNICEF to present a written statement providing the management perspective on issues raised in the annual report on the evaluation function, to be made available well in advance of the relevant session of the Executive Board;

11. Also requests UNICEF to allocate sufficient resources to the Evaluation Office to be shown in a separate budget line in the UNICEF integrated budget, 2014-2017, to be presented for adoption at the second regular session 2013;

12. Further requests UNICEF, while implementing the evaluation policy, to track expenditure for decentralized evaluations and ensure timeliness of management responses;

13. Calls upon UNICEF to continue to conduct evaluations of operations at the country level in close consultation with national Governments and other national partners, as appropriate, and to assist Governments and other partners in the development of national evaluation capacities;

14. Encourages UNICEF to use national evaluation systems to the extent possible and to continue to incorporate capacity-building mechanisms into programme design and implementation and to ensure that evaluations are responsive to national demand;

15. Requests UNICEF to report on steps taken to ensure that relevant evaluation results are systematically considered and used in preparing key policies, strategies and programmes;

16. Takes note of the thematic synthesis report on evaluation of humanitarian action (E/ICEF/2013/15);

17. Appreciates the presentation and analysis in the report, and looks forward to future thematic synthesis reports, as requested in decision 2012/12;

18. Requests UNICEF to present a full management response to the recommendations in the thematic synthesis reports presented to the Executive Board;

19. Also requests UNICEF to address key gaps in the evaluation coverage of its humanitarian interventions, while continuing to improve the quality of evaluations in this field.

Annual session
21 June 2013

2013/14. Office of Internal Audit and Investigations 2012 annual report to the Executive Board

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the Office of Internal Audit and Investigations 2012 annual report to the Executive Board (E/ICEF/2013/AB/L.2), the UNICEF Audit Advisory Committee 2012 annual report to the Executive Director, and the UNICEF management response to the annual report of the Office of Internal Audit and Investigations for 2012 (E/ICEF/2013/AB/L.3);

2. Welcomes the ongoing commitment of UNICEF to greater accountability and transparency, and in this regard welcomes the implementation of the decision on public disclosure of the internal audit reports;

3. Expresses its continuing support for strengthening the internal audit and investigation functions of UNICEF;

4. Takes note of the work undertaken by UNICEF to implement outstanding audit recommendations, and encourages UNICEF to implement urgently the outstanding recommendations that remain;

5. Notes with appreciation the increased number of joint audits, encourages UNICEF to work collaboratively with other United Nations development organizations and find opportunities for further joint approaches, and underscores the importance of the review of the harmonized approach to cash transfers, which should provide clear guidance for adequate application of this approach jointly developed by the organizations;

6. Underscores the importance of the Office of Internal Audit and Investigations for UNICEF and, in this regard, requests UNICEF to assess and ensure that the Office of Internal Audit and Investigations has the level of human and financial resources, based on an assessment of risks facing the organization, to respond adequately to the needs for audit, investigations and advisory services, and requests UNICEF to ensure that sufficient resources are allocated for such purposes when the UNICEF integrated budget, 2014-2017, is presented to the Executive Board, with special emphasis being paid to the investigation function;

7. Takes note of the implementation by UNICEF of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards.

Coordination, programme and other questions: calendar of conferences and meetings in the economic, social and related fields

Draft resolution submitted by the Vice-President of the Council, Martin Sajdik (Austria)

Calendar of conferences and meetings in the economic, social and related fields

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its decision 281 (LXIII) of 4 August 1977 to adopt, on a regular basis, a biennial cycle of meetings which would correspond to the programme budget cycle, for better administrative control,

Recalling also its decision 1988/103 of 5 February 1988 to invite the Committee on Conferences to review the provisional biennial calendar of conferences and meetings of the Council and submit, as appropriate, its recommendations thereon to the Council,

Recalling further General Assembly resolution 66/233 of 24 December 2011, in which the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to propose, at its sixty-seventh session, a comprehensive review of conference servicing highlighting any duplications and redundancies, with a view to identifying innovative ideas, potential synergies and other cost-saving measures, without compromising the quality of its services,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 67/237 of 24 December 2012, in which the Assembly concurred with the observations contained in paragraph 13 of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences[1] regarding the biennial calendar of meetings of the Economic and Social Council,

1. Decides to approve the provisional calendar of conferences and meetings in the economic, social and related fields for 2014 and 2015;

[1] A/67/127 and Corr.1.

Item 7 (c) of the provisional agenda
Coordination, programme and other questions: mainstreaming a gender perspective into all policies and programmes in the United Nations

Draft resolution submitted by the Vice-President of the Council, Martin Sajdik (Austria), on the basis of informal consultations

Mainstreaming a gender perspective into all policies and programmes in the United Nations system

The Economic and Social Council,

Reaffirming its agreed conclusions 1997/2 of 18 July 1997 on mainstreaming a gender perspective into all policies and programmes in the United Nations system,[1] and recalling its resolutions 1998/43 of 31 July 1998, 2001/41 of 26 July 2001, 2002/23 of 24 July 2002, 2003/49 of 24 July 2003, 2004/4 of 7 July 2004, 2005/31 of 26 July 2005, 2006/36 of 27 July 2006, 2007/33 of 27 July 2007, 2008/34 of 25 July 2008, 2009/12 of 28 July 2009, 2010/29 of 23 July 2010, 2011/6 of 14 July 2011 and 2012/24 of 27 July 2012,

Reaffirming also the commitments to gender equality and the advancement of women made at the Millennium Summit,[2] the 2005 World Summit,[3] the High-level Plenary Meeting of the General Assembly on the Millennium Development Goals,[4] the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development[5] and other major United Nations summits, conferences and special sessions, and reaffirming further that their full, effective and accelerated implementation is integral to achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals,

Reaffirming further the commitment made at the 2005 World Summit to actively promote the mainstreaming of a gender perspective into the design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of policies and programmes in all political, economic and social spheres and to further undertake to strengthen the capabilities of the United Nations system in the area of gender,

Reaffirming that gender mainstreaming is a globally accepted strategy for achieving gender equality and the empowerment of women and constitutes a critical strategy in the full, effective and accelerated implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action[6] and the outcomes of the twenty-third special session of the General Assembly,[7]

Recalling General Assembly resolution 67/226 of 21 December 2012, entitled "Quadrennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system" including in particular section D, on gender equality and empowerment of women,

Recalling the section of General Assembly resolution 64/289 of 2 July 2010, entitled "Strengthening the institutional arrangements for support of gender equality and the empowerment of women",

1. Welcomes the report of the Secretary-General,[8] and appreciates that it is the first report on gender mainstreaming to provide a systemic and comprehensive approach to data collection through the United Nations system;

2. Also welcomes the recommendations of the report, and calls for further and continued efforts to mainstream a gender perspective into all policies and programmes of the United Nations, in accordance with all relevant United Nations resolutions, in particular those of the Economic and Social Council;

3. Stresses that the Inter-Agency Network on Women and Gender Equality constitutes a key forum for achieving more effective coordination, coherence and gender mainstreaming across the United Nations system and for the exchange and cross-fertilization of ideas and practical experiences on gender mainstreaming within the United Nations system, and looks forward to the continued implementation of the policy and strategy for gender mainstreaming within the United Nations system;

4. Notes with appreciation the important work of the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women) for more effective and coherent gender mainstreaming across the United Nations and its role in leading, coordinating and promoting accountability of the United Nations system in its work on gender equality and the empowerment of women, as established by the General Assembly in its resolution 64/289, and recognizes its role in assisting Member States upon their request;

5. Requests the United Nations system, including its agencies, funds and programmes, within their respective mandates, to accelerate mainstreaming the issue of gender in accordance with previous Council resolutions, in particular resolution 2008/34, General Assembly resolution 64/289 and General Assembly resolution 67/226, including mainstreaming a gender perspective into all operational mechanisms, inter alia, the United Nations Development Assistance Framework and other development frameworks, ensuring that managers provide leadership and support, within the United Nations system, to advance gender mainstreaming, strengthening reporting, monitoring and evaluation so as to allow system-wide assessment of progress in gender mainstreaming, and using existing training resources, including institutions and infrastructure, to assist in the development and application of unified training modules and tools on gender mainstreaming;

6. Also requests the United Nations system to continue and increase support to Member States, with their agreement and consent, in the implementation of national policies for the achievement of gender equality and the empowerment of women, inter alia, by providing support and capacity development to national machineries for the advancement of women and related national entities;

7. Welcomes the roll-out of the United Nations System-wide Action Plan on Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women, under the leadership of UN-Women, and the use of reporting under it to inform the report of the Secretary-General on "mainstreaming a gender perspective into all policies and programmes in the United Nations system", in order to provide the baseline for measuring the progress of the United Nation system on gender mainstreaming at the corporate level;

8. Recognizes that large gaps remain between policy and practice and that building the United Nations staff capacities alone is not sufficient for the entire United Nations to meet its commitments and obligations with respect to gender mainstreaming;

9. Encourages the United Nations Chief Executives Board for Coordination and senior managers to continue directing their attention to promoting gender mainstreaming in the United Nations system;

10. Requests the United Nations system, including its agencies, funds and programmes, within their respective organizational mandates, to continue working collaboratively to enhance and accelerate gender mainstreaming within the United Nations system including by:

(a) Continuing to roll-out the United Nations System-wide Action Plan on Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women and reporting on progress made in its implementation, including of entity-specific remedial action plans, as a system-wide accountability mechanism for performance in gender mainstreaming;

(b) Prioritizing remedial action plans and investing in human and financial resources, as appropriate, to address the gaps identified through the United Nations System-wide Action Plan reporting towards meeting set standards;

(c) Supporting efforts by the governing bodies of United Nations entities to devote adequate attention to gender mainstreaming in their plans and activities;

(d) Ensuring that the various accountability mechanisms of the United Nations system provide for more coherent, accurate and effective monitoring, evaluation and reporting on gender equality results and common indicators on gender equality and the empowerment of women, and on the tracking of gender-related resource allocation and expenditure, including through the use of gender markers;

(e) Continuing to better align gender equality programming with national priorities across sectors, as requested by the Member State concerned, with the aim of mainstreaming gender perspectives into all legislation, policies and programmes;

(f) Strengthening the coordination of gender-responsive operational activities among entities of the United Nations system through existing coordination mechanisms at the country level and in partnership, where appropriate, with national stakeholders;

(g) Instituting greater accountability in evaluations conducted, inter alia, by United Nations country teams through the inclusion of gender perspectives in such evaluations;

(h) Expanding and strengthening the use by the country teams in the context of the United Nations Development Assistance Framework of the United Nations Development Group performance indicators on gender equality (gender scorecard), as a planning and reporting tool for assessing the effectiveness of gender mainstreaming;

(i) Substantially increasing the investment in and focus on outcomes and outputs relating to gender equality and the empowerment of women in the United Nations Development Assistance Framework programmes, including by strengthening the predictability of funding, broadening the donor base and increasing flexibility of non-core resources;

(j) Acquiring appropriate technical expertise for gender mainstreaming into programme planning and implementation to ensure that gender dimensions are systematically addressed and, in this regard, drawing on the gender equality expertise available in the United Nations system, including at UN-Women, to assist in the preparation of United Nations Development Assistance Frameworks and other relevant programming frameworks;

(k) Collecting, analysing, disseminating and using accurate, reliable, comparable and relevant data, disaggregated by sex and age, in a regular and systematic manner, in order to guide country programming, to support the preparation of organization-wide and country-level documents, such as the strategic, programmatic and results-based frameworks and evaluations, and to continue to promote and refine their tools for measuring progress and impact;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Council at its substantive session of 2014 a report on the implementation of the present resolution, including the promotion of accountability at both national and global levels and progress made in the implementation of the System-wide Action Plan.
